

This week at Suckley School

Happy Friday,

I hope you are all well and have had a positive week despite the deluge of rain that isn't showing any signs of stopping! I did see my first snowdrops along the banks on my drive to school this morning, which certainly brightened my day! It has been another busy week in school, with the children throwing themselves into their learning and showing such enthusiasm in everything they do. Walking through the classrooms this week, I've loved seeing so many engaged faces and seeing such kindness, polite manners, curiosity, and determination. The joy they show when they achieve something, so personal to them, is very special- an example this week has been a child in Robins showing me their 'everlasting pencil'. A reward for their improved handwriting- they were, quite rightly, so very proud and eager to share their achievement.

Part of our school development plan is to develop 'play' during outdoor lunchtimes. We have big ideas for our playground area, which we hope to be able to share with you after half-term. We will be asking for your support in gathering different resources that we are going to need. In the first instance, can I ask if any parents have a link to a supplier of rubber mulch/bark- the type that we use in the wild area? If so, please do get in touch with me. Watch this space for more random requests in the near future as our plans get revealed!

I wish you all a healthy, happy and hopefully slightly drier half-term break!

With kind regards,
Helen Field

Photos of The Week

To support the children's vocabulary and in order for them to keep abreast of current affairs, both locally and nationally, we have a "Let's Talk About It" assembly every Monday. Each week we have different pictures and questions to initiate conversations with, and between, the children. We would like to continue this 'talking' theme by asking you to discuss activities the children have done in school each week. Here are some photos to help prompt the conversations:

Notice to parents

A reminder that we run stay & play on a Monday until 4:30 pm. This session costs £6 and includes a snack.

Please can we remind parents NOT to park or block the Bungalow opposite the school. The new owners have now moved in. With this in mind, can all parents be cautious when driving around the school area. As you are aware parking is limited, you might find it easier to park down by the playing fields or nearby housing estate and walk up.

There will be no after-school clubs the 1st week back after half-term. They start the w/c the 2nd March and run for 4 weeks. Stay & play will operate like normal. There are still spaces available for R & KS1 Dance club on a Wednesday and CT Coaching on a Monday and Tuesday.

If your child has hot lunches, don't forget to order and pay by Sunday 22nd February.
