'HAPPY, ASPIRATIONAL AND READY FOR LIFE'

This week at Suckley School

Happy Friday!

Anti-bullying Week, Remembrance Day, Children in Need, Goodrich Castle, Carols at Holloways...so many events this week which I have thoroughly enjoyed sharing with the children. The buzz of conversation relating to these events this week has been heard throughout the school- in every classroom, along the corridors and in our outdoor areas.

My over-arching feeling relating to each of the events we have participated in is pride. I am so proud of the levels of maturity, understanding and respect from each and every one of the children, regardless of their age. Wrens showing an understanding of the need to remain silent for one minute and being able to say why, Woodpeckers for sharing why they were wearing no school uniform and how that was supporting children just like them who were facing difficulty, Eagles for sharing their thoughts in assembly about bullying and how the bully can often be a child in need too and Robins for their exceptional behaviour on the trip to Goodrich Castle.

I've often said to parents 'I wish you could be a fly on the wall and see your child thriving'...this week more than ever I wish this could be possible!

The building work is almost complete! We have been waiting for the delivery of the new railing along the ramp, it has finally arrived and has been installed but Storm Claudia has now delayed the tarmacing along the path. Fingers crossed we will be fully back to normal by the end of next week.

As always, please get in touch if you have any questions or concerns.

With kind regards,
Helen Field

Photos of The Week

To support the children's vocabulary and in order for them to keep abreast of current affairs, both locally and nationally, we have a "Let's Talk About It" assembly every Monday. Each week we have different pictures and questions to initiate conversations with, and between, the children. We would like to continue this 'talking' theme by asking you to discuss activities the children have done in school each week. Here are some photos to help prompt the conversations:
