This week at Suckley School

We started the week together in assembly, focusing on one of our core school values: determination. The children listened to Aesop's fable- The Hare and the Tortoise. We discussed how we can shift our thinking from "I can't do it" to "I can't do it... yet!" — a powerful mindset that we continue to encourage across all areas of learning.

It has been another busy week at school. From Bell Boating adventures during a thunderstorm, to learning how to tell the time, to getting creative with costumes— there has been something to engage and inspire every learner.

We have also seen examples of community cohesion. One class joined the Warm Wednesdays group at the church, spending valuable time with local residents and meeting members of the policing team. It was equally lovely to welcome Fledglings Nursery to our school, who made use of our outdoor areas.

Following a rigorous interview process, I am delighted to share that Mrs Boyle has been successfully appointed as our Deputy Headteacher. She is already a valued member of our team and will be a real asset to the Senior Leadership Team moving forward. Well done Mrs Boyle!

A gentle reminder regarding term-time holidays — we are beginning to see a noticeable increase in requests. While we fully understand the financial considerations and the opportunities holidays can provide, I am required to record these absences as unauthorised, and they may result in a penalty notice issued by the Local Authority. We are extremely proud of our attendance, which remains above both local and national averages, and we are keen to maintain this positive trend.

Finally, a small request — if any members of our community are aware of, or have contacts for, rubber bark chippings, we would be very grateful to hear from you! With kind regards, Helen Field

Once you have ordered tuition, Severn Arts will confirm availability and issue an invoice. Payment is not required during the booking process but must be made before lessons commence. Severn Arts will agree lesson details with your school.

Severn Arts also has a large stock of quality instruments available to hire (free for those who meet specific criteria).
